Serving Hudson River with Pride for 36 Years

A Message from Our President:

We had a successful, if wet, Pumpkin Festival. Our festivals are always “rain or shine” events and this time we had to use “plan B.” We moved about 80% of our club activities into the clubhouse and did the rest under a tent. The music and sales of pie, cake, chili, and pumpkin soup were indoors. We sold pumpkins and made and distributed Stone Soup outside. Thanks to everyone who put in all the hard work and last minute improvisation to make it happen.

This past weekend, the BSC hosted a reunion concert of Clearwater Sloop Singers. The event was organized by Mel Healy and Vinny Cerniglia. It was a fund raiser for the “upkeep of the sloops,” as is the CD Broad Old River II which was also produced by Mel and Vinny. The income is being split between Clearwater and BSC.

We've received the fan for the Multrum. It will be installed as soon as we can gather a couple of volunteers to help and arrange a date to do the work. The fan will serve a couple of purposes. First, it will provide an airflow that goes down through the toilet opening and then up through the vent stack. This will help with odor control. Also, by providing more fresh air to the composting process, we hope to see a drier and more complete breakdown of waste.

The Woody is out of the water for the winter. After taking out over 1600 guests this year, Woody will be receiving the usual mix of TLC, upgrades, and other attention our fine sloop requires. Keep an eye on the website for announcements of work parties at the boat.

The December general meeting will be Election Night. There is a highly qualified group of nominees. Please mark your calendar now for Friday, Dec 4th.

See you at the river.
Saul.

Beacon Sloop Club General Meeting Minutes, November 6, 2009

Prior to the meeting music was provided by Pete Seeger and Guests Bob Killian from New Jersey and Rochelle Harper from Gulfport Mississippi. They were here for the Clearwater gathering of the Sloop Clubs.

The Meeting was called to order by President Saul Rozinsky

Founding member Pat Egan (famed Ginger cookies) passed away on October 10th. Pete Seeger and Betty Harkins spoke in her memory. A donation was made in her name to the Sloop Club.

Treasurer's Report:

We made approximately $2100 from the Pumpkin festival in spite of the rain. Our Current Balance is $39,074.59. This is fantastic considering that we had $33,000 last year at this time and were faced with doing major repairs on the Woody. We had the most successful Strawberry Festival ever. And thanks to the fundraising efforts of Gigi Fris and Kevin Haden we were able to pay for the repairs to the Woody. The Captains did a yeoman's job with all the sailing this year. They took a record 1650 people sailing. Members responded to the challenge and exceeded our goals. Thanks to all.

2010 budget is being prepared. Committees need to remember to submit your requests.

Nominations for 2010 officers:

Saul Rozinsky is retiring as president. Saul thanks for a great a great 2 years and a life- long dedication to the club.

Nominations for President:

David Eberle Rosemary Thomas Steve Schwartz

Nominations for Vice President:

Claudine Craig

Nominations for Secretary:

Vane Lashua

Nominations for Treasurer:

Linda Beatty Sarah Elizabeth

Candidacies of Steve Schwartz, Linda Beatty, and Sara Elizabeth need to be confirmed as they were not present. Candidates will make speeches at the December general meeting. Voting by ballot will follow.

Woody Report:

The boat has been de-rigged and electronics and the batteries removed as well as the electric motor. The boat should be out of the water and in dry dock. There will be a limited number of repairs made during the winter. Seven of the old batteries we sold to club members. The remaining five we sold to the junk yard for $85.

Clearwater:

Clearwater is in their new home, the "Whitehouse" at the University Settlement. They thanked us for all the support we provide. They still have some work to do and if anyone can help please call Jonathon n Wright at 265-8080

Building Committee:

The Multrum will undergo improvements, with the installation of a fan, lengthening of the vent stack, and relocating of the access hatchway.

We will put a sign on the outside of the door to tell people to put sawdust in the Multrum and to leave the seat down (oh the gender differences)

Spending of $400-600 dollars for repairing the sound system was approved.

A committee was appointed to improve the lighting in the club. David Eberle is chairman. Tom LaBarr, Vane Lashua, Kathy Buyers and Mark McCaroll are members.

As part of our Zero Waste Program, please carry away what you bring. Leave no trash behind.

Environmental Committee:

Edmond Fitzgerald announced that there will be a meeting Friday November 20th, to prepare for the winter lecture series. If you have any suggestions for speakers please let Edmond know.

Other Business:

Mark McCarroll did a reading of a speech appealing for help by the Lanape chief to the people of the United States.

Mark also passed the hat and collected another $180 which brings us to within $60 of our Goal of $1000. Again thanks to the members for rising to the challenge.

Announcements:

Something to Say Café (young music writers and singers organization) will continue with winter meeting. You should come and hear them.

A Tellebration (story telling) will be held at Kingston City Hall Saturday Nov. 21st

400 Years Ago

On Nov. 7th, 1609 the Half Moon arrived back in Europe, sailing into Dartmouth harbor. It's not clear why Hudson chose to go to England rather than return to Holland. He wrote to the directors immediately but according to Van Meteren:

"Along time elapsed, through contrary winds, before the Company could be informed of the arrival of the ship in England. Then they ordered the ship and crew to return as soon as possible. But, when this was about to be done, Skipper Henry Hudson and the other Englishmen of the ship were commanded by the government there not to leave, but to serve their own country."

Building Committee Work Day October 12th

The building committee work day took place on Columbus Day. Inside Gigi, Caitlin, Claudine and others cleaned and rearranged the clubhouse. It was great that they did since we ended up having a mostly indoor Pumpkin Festival. We really need help from the entire club to keep neat and tidy.

The kids with some direction from Gigi hung the pumpkin banner (any excuse to go on the roof) and helped with odd jobs.

The wood cutting crew with Pete on the saw, Ron on the splitter and the rest of us loading and lifting worked overtime to fill both indoor and outdoor woodpiles. We should be warm and cozy for the next few months at least.

All the activity attracted a steady stream of curious visitors so we got some good PR out of the day as well.

Environmental Committee Meeting

I would like to have a meeting of the Environmental Committee on Friday November 20th, 7pm at the BSC Clubhouse. The agenda will be to coordinate the 2010 Educational Seminars a/k/a lecture series. Anyone who cannot attend please feel free to forward me via e-mail any suggestions or ideas you may have on this subject and I will bring them up at the meeting. As always please spread the word of this meeting any persons you know of that might be interested in joining our committee.

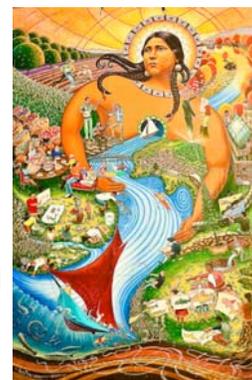

If you need to speak to me feel free to call my cell phone # 845-476-6674.

Many thanks,

Edmund

Posters of the Mural for Sale

Starting the weekend after Thanksgiving and continuing through December, Rick Price and Gigi Fris will be selling framed posters of the mural, as well as postcards.

The new poster created by the artist will be all image and no copy. It will be on art grade stock and will not be susceptible to fading in direct sunlight. People who wish to purchase it framed or unframed will be able to do so at the first sloop club meeting in December, or at any of the Sunday Beacon Farmer's Markets. Linda Hubbard of River Winds Gallery will also be selling them, but she takes a 50% commission, while the posters sold at the Farmer's Market will give all profit directly to the artist.

At this point, Rick has received close to $8,500 of his $10,000 fee. We're hoping poster sales for the holidays will set us free of any further debt to him. Please purchase one for your home or give it to a family as a Christmas gift. Remember, the mural is only supposed to be up for a couple of years, at least according to our original agreement with the proprietors of Hudson Beach Glass, which own the building the River Beacons mural hangs from.

Beacon Sloop Club Revamp the Camp Day II October 10th

Betty Harkins arranged for the Sloop Club to pay a return visit to help Clearwater with the restoration of the Settlement Camp. Members joined in with painting, wiring of the network, shoring up the floor, and a little bricklaying.

Clearwater has moved in and the building is looking quite livable but there are still a few jobs to do so you can still volunteer by contacting

Jonathan Wright at Clearwater.

Musical Heritage Night

On Sunday, November 22, there will be a Musical Heritage Night celebrating the music and message of Pete Seeger and featuring several singer-songwriters at the Towne Crier Café, 130 Route 22, Pawling, NY. The show is at 7:30 PM. Tickets are $10. For reservations and more information call (845) 855-1300 or visit www.townecrier.com.

Pumpkin Festival

As I went through pictures from prior year's Pumpkin Festivals for the press; I realized just how variable the October weather is, some years shorts and t-shirts, some years winter jackets and this year....

What can I say; the resilience and dedication of our volunteers shone through once again. From the pie filling shortage, to the search for kitchen facilities, to the weather and tides, we overcame all obstacles and put on a great festival. We sold out our 84 pies, chili, baked goods, soup, and most of the pumpkins to a small but hearty crowd.

Those who came were rewarded with great live entertainment and got a much more intimate look at the club than they would get at a large festival. It felt like a Sloop Club party.

Thank You again to all who helped!

The Stone Soup Experience. by Gigi

The Stone Soup marathon was a bit surreal. Toshi told me to stock up on about four gallons of good, condensed, homemade stock, to start the soup with. Do you have any idea of how many bushels of vegetables that takes? I felt as if I had become one with the vegetable deities after throwing every conceivable herb, plus leaks, carrots, celery, parsnips, onions in one pot and every Italian themed sauce ingredient in another.

Stop and Shop contributed tons of croutons, carrots, spices, potatoes, and many other items I cannot currently recall-oh wait-noodles and pasta. Then I had to search in my yard to find some rather Zen looking stones to boil to death at the bottom of the pot.

Members of the community approached with tidings of peas, collard greens, black eyed peas, carrots and other veggies. Tom LaBarr lit up the fire under the cauldron and we all had a very WITCHY moment. We threw the stock in with the water and stones, then added vegetables, then pasta and noodles.

Chrissy Kanlong and Liz Nedwell helped to chop veggies and fresh herbs, while Sarah Elisabeth received the dubious honor of grinding a quarter cup of black pepper. It worked out to 13 gallons of soup, which disappeared in an hour. Fortunately, it was raining at Pumpkin Fest, because I would have run out of soup in a half hour

It was a good day for stone soup. Allot of visitors from Dia were shocked to find out it was free. Many had a couple bowls to warm their aching bones, including our own Rich Holtzman. We told the stone soup story over and over again-although it did change a bit with each version. Sarah Elisabeth then took over the ladling honors.

I don't think I will do noodles again because their soup life is fleeting-maybe some good ole barley next year. In fact, I think I'm going to go stone soup Mexican-with beans and tortillas and other new ingredients to the BSC pot. Frankly, I am not Susie vegetarian or vegan, and was wishing for a nice chunk of stewed beef or at least a hambone to round it all out-but maybe next year I'll do a separate "Carnivores Only" cauldron-no Grimm's fairy tale analogies, please!!

PS-Thanks Alan, for dragging the cauldron down to the club for me!!

Winter Maintenance

Well, the Woody is back up at White's again, boo-hoo. Despite the rainy summer, we took out a record 1650 guests. I was shooting for 1700-1800, but the rain at the Pumpkin Festival precluded that plan from succeeding.

Anyway, thanks to all the willing hands derigging the Woody on Saturday afternoon, Halloween, as well as on November 3, Election Day. Helpers included:

Jim Birmingham	Bruce Fox	Ingrid and Ben
Vanessa Sugg	Tony Acquisto	Steve Feyl
David Cohen	Rich Holtzman	Alan Thomas
Robert Thomas	Tom Baldino

and if I forgot anybody, sue me, sue me.

Special thanks to Ben for truly taking charge and Steve and Jim for lugging batteries around.

The centerboard was left on her and the mast was taken off and derigged, Donny will be finding a place for both soon within the Marina. Now we just have to get the frame and tarp up on her and settle down for a long night's rest. No Bermuda this year. As Lucy would say, "Ricky, WAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAnt!!!"

Oh, plan on our winter sojourn to be briefly interrupted around Ground Hog's Day with the Block Party!

Woody Restorations-The Final Push

Gigi recently asked Jimmy Kricker and his team to get estimates to the club for the replacement of the cabin top, cockpit benches, toe rail and the rotted plank directly behind the rub rail portside. Jimmy said he would drop by White's and drum something up for us.

Jimmy Goergon from Monday Night crew has restored our old wooden ladder-well-mostly replaced it. Thanks to Jimmy for his continuous and excellent efforts on behalf of the Woody. We sure do appreciate his expertise and calm demeanor.

Kip showed Saul and Gigi the Sojo spars stored up at the Settlement Camp the day before the Pumpkin Festival. The Sojo topmast looked pretty solid, and Gigi is going to hopefully find somebody to wire it.

Opening of the Walkway Over the Hudson

The Sloop Club was well represented at the historic festivities, on the bridge, on the shore, and on the water. The Woody under the command of Captain Patrick took out over 50 guests and delivered crew to the Clearwater (we are a Ferry Sloop after all). The two Sloops put on quite a show for the folks above. If you want to see more check out Mel & Vinnie's website. Thanks to all for the great photos.
